Prayer of Praise
Ephesians 1:15-23 | Jason Krute, Senior Pastor

Personal Prayer Questions

1. What part(s) of this church body are you thankful for?
2. What part of God's Word do you need to understand more in-depth? What part of God's Word do you need to better apply?
3. Which aspects of your salvation do you only partially understand?
(Reminder of some ideas covered in the last few weeks: union with Christ, blamelessness, adoption, redemption, sealing with the Holy Spirit, and others.)
4. Where do you notice God working within St. Charles County? What might you be overlooking?

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

KYLE MCEACHRON

Teach Beyond - Budapest, Hungary

Kyle McEachron is engaged in full-time ministry, teaching art and graphic design classes at the International Christian School of Budapest in Hungary (ICSB). After completing an initial two-year commitment, Kyle has decided to pursue long-term ministry in Hungary. He desires to contribute to the school's goal of fostering a community of Christ followers who are active thinkers, effective communicators, global citizens, and faithful stewards.

As you pray for Kyle, praise God for his ongoing ministry to many students. Pray for end of the year activities as he enters the spring semester, as well as wisdom in dealing with challenging classroom situations.

Visit gcchapel.org/missions to learn more about our missionaries or to be added to the missions newsletter and get updates via a weekly email.
